

Sonoma County Women in Law Community Advocacy Scholarship

Sonoma County Women in Law (“SCWiL”) is awarding, with the help of a grant from the Sonoma County Board of Supervisors, one Community Advocacy Scholarship (the “Scholarship”), in an amount of no less than $2,500 and up to $4,000, subject to future contributions by the Sonoma County Board of Supervisors. The purpose of this SCWiL Scholarship is to assist a deserving law student who has demonstrated involvement in and dedication to serving the community by providing financial support to defray the cost of their legal education. This Scholarship is open to all applicants regardless of gender.

Qualifications: (1) completion of a minimum of one year of law school as of May 2024; (2) financial need; (3) dedicated involvement in Sonoma County community affairs; and (4) on track to receive a Juris Doctor degree no later than May 2027.

To apply, applicants must submit a maximum two-page essay detailing their involvement in Sonoma County community affairs, a copy of their most recent law school transcript, and a Student Aid Report or information from their most recent tax return (or excerpt from their parent or guardian’s most recent tax return if they are a dependent student) showing financial need.

Application packets must be received between March 15, 2024, and 11:59 pm on April 15, 2024, for consideration. Please submit applications to socowil@gmail.com and lynne.stark-slater@att.net.
